2025 PAINT COLLECTION

Unprecedented variety and design inspiration in vivid, undeniable color.

MEET THE MOMENT

Colors are more than just shades—they are reflections of cultural shifts, innovative design, and our evolving tastes. From bold, dynamic tones to serene, understated palettes, each of these trends capture a unique narrative of creativity and expression.

Equestrian Chic

Rustic meets urbane. With a wealth of warm tones and natural textures, Equestrian Chic pulls off pairings with refined ease. Led by color this remarkable, you can achieve the same. The deep, grounding, neutral grey of Cavern can lay the foundation for adventurous materials and bold accessories, serving up on-trend, contemporary comfort without contradiction.

Orchid

Colorful Cottage

Colorful Cottage highlights the warmth of country living with a polished, cheerful style. Unlike traditional Cottagecore, it blends sophistication with vibrant patterns and intricate details. A strong color foundation is key—Petal, Medallion's neutral pink, provides balance while allowing designers to elevate the aesthetic with intentional, stylish inspiration.

Retro Revitalism

A new take on universally celebrated style requires color made for big impressions. Retro Revivalism lays claim to mid-century influences and bravely takes throwback design to new heights. Here design fortune favors the bold. Featuring fearless patterns and unique personal touches that allow shades like Canyon and Claret to playfully echo vintage charm and deftly exude their own confidence.

Quiet Biophilia

Luxury guided by serenity. An offshoot of the Quiet Luxury trend, Quiet Biophilia applies organic inspiration as a driving force and a calming influence. In company with tasteful, trend-inspired materials, textures and accents—like marble, linen, light wood tones, and unique, opulent plant life—Succulent’s cool green can help bring nature’s tranquility home.

(GOLD) Monona Flat Panel in Succulent and Pistachio on maple; Monona Reverse Raised Panel in Lynx on quartersawn oak
